14 v.

15 NAVIGATORS INSURANCE
COMPANY, a New York corporation,
16 and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive

17 Defendants.

18 _____/ No. C 04-5268 FMS

19 ORDER STAYING ACTION

20 Plaintiff G&L Rebar, Inc. (“G&L”) filed this action against Defendant Navigators Insurance
21 Company (“Navigators”) seeking liability insurance benefits for defense costs and indemnity 22 regarding an underlying lawsuit. Parties state that on January 6, 2004, Navigators agreed to defend 23 G&L in the underlying lawsuit, but after an investigation of the facts and allegations in that lawsuit, 24 Navigators withdrew its defense on April 5, 2004. On or about April 18, 2005, after consideration
25 of what Navigators believed to be newly discovered evidence and/or asserted allegations of damage 26 to third party property arising out of the work of G&L, Navigators again agreed to defend G&L in 27 the underlying lawsuits. Navigators also agreed to reimburse G&L for the defense fees and 28 subsequent to its withdrawal of the defense on April 5, 2004. Trial in the underlying lawsuit has been continued until at least the fall of 2005 and may not proceed until early 2006.

1 Because Navigators is once again defending G&L, Navigators believes that the issue of 2 whether Navigators owes any indemnity obligations under its policies is not ripe. Navigators
3 requests that this action be stayed until resolution of the underlying lawsuit against G&L. G&L's 4 position is that the case should move forward with respect to Navigators's breach of its duty to 5 defend.

6 This Court has the inherent power to stay proceedings in order to control the disposition of 7 the causes on its docket with economy of time and effort for itself, for counsel and for litigants. See 8 Landis v. North American Co., 299 U.S. 248, 254-255, 81 L. Ed. 153, 57 S. Ct. 163 (1936). Having 9 considered the arguments of the parties, the Court orders that this action be STAYED until 10 November 11, 2005.
